... We were partially prompted into buying our TV set some four years back by the hockey games being televised and at the time my wife was pregnant and didn't wish to attend until after the child was born. The following year the Hawks were gone from TV and she lost interest and we never did get down to see any games. Since they've started televising again, interest has picked up in our household and we promise you at least two people will attend the Blackhawk games that hadn't gone before. . . .

Is a healthy adolescent supposed to act like Henry Aldrich? I think it's positively nauseating the way he carries on as though he were mentally retarded. . . .

Forest Park, Ill.

LIL OLSEN

Ed. Note: If Henry were normal, who'd watch?

On Mr. Peepers January 11 show, he answered when asked his salary "I make $42.50 a week gross." Will someone tell the writer of this show that probably the lowest paid teacher in the U. S. makes at least $60.00 a week and a jr. high school teacher probably around $100 a week. Sounds like propaganda to me.

Kalamazoo, Mich.

I. M. WRIGHT

Ed. Note: Remember, it's a comedy show.

I think that the decision to take "Life with Luigi" off the air was a big mistake. I think that the Red Buttons Show which is replacing it does not begin to compare with Luigi. Red might be all right as a stagehand but not as a comedian.

Three cheers for "Farntown, U. S. A." It's the only Chicago program I know of that gives us city folks who love the farm a chance to be with our farm friends.

RUMORS are flying that NBC may bring back a revival of "Broadway Open House," the late hour hodge-podge that rocketed comic Jerry Lester to fame. It's believed the network is pretty well flushed with the artistic and commercial success of its "Today" show with Dave Garway, and hopes to make a repeat killing in the post-midnight spot. One thing seems certain, however—Jerry Lester won't get the job as emcee, since the network is soured on him as a result of his previous contract squabbles with NBC. If "Open House" comes back, it'll be with an entirely different cast from the old Lester-Dagmar-DeLugg bunch. . . . It's now definite: Red Skelton will soon drop the idea of filming his shows in advance. The move may restore him to Nielsen's magic Top Ten in audience ratings, because Red, live, is one of the all-time great comics.

Some viewer complaints coming thru about "Omnibus," the expensive culture series on CBS. Main gripe is that the producers are aiming so mightily for "Art for art's sake" they've left us viewers far behind. . . . "Quick As A Flash," the new TV version of the popular radio show, is scheduled for ABC starting March 12. Super salesman Al Morey peddled the show to Thor Corp. Disk jockey Bobby Sherwood may emcee the quizzer. . . . Senator Joe McCarthy of Wisconsin is still battling. Now he's agin the TV station application of the Capital Times newspaper of Madison. Reason: McCarthy and Times publisher William Evjue are mortal political enemies. . . . Ancient Note—The "Lone Ranger" just galloped into his 20th year in broadcasting. . . . Three major networks—CBS, NBC and ABC—have banned the new record "She Looks" with singer Frances Faye, on the grounds that the disk is "too risque." Now watch the sales boom.

Looks like the femme warblers are finally coming into their own on TV, with regular shows by Dinah Shore, Mindy Carson, Jane Froman and Patti Page. . . . Time magazine gives a rough time to Doug Fairbanks, Jr., emcee of his own weekly TV series. However, the mag's story has nothing to do with video. Instead it's a sharp analysis of Doug's adventures among Britain's nobility (he now lives there). Apparently Doug, a war hero, likes to wear his medals publicly. According to Time, the Britons call him "Captain Hornblower" and describe a bad cocktail—"It tastes as if Douglas had been polishing at least half his medals in it."

Another notable quote, by TV wit Bergen Evans as quoted by columnist John Crosby: "Last year when the show (Down You Go) was sponsored by Old Gold cigarettes, I was asked by the agency not to use the word 'American' again on the air—I had uttered this little obscenity in a discussion with one of the panel members—because it suggested the American Tobacco Co."

Success Story—Walt Durban's "Walt's Workshop" celebrates its 5th birthday on local TV. During all that time, it's been sponsored by Edward Hines Lumber. Walt, a carpentry instructor at a Chi suburban hi school, has shown how to build practically everything on TV except a doghouse big enough for husbands.
IN the fierce competition that is popular singing, the final judging is done by the record buying public. Since most pop records are purchased by bobbysoxers, this naturally leaves the field in a chaotic condition. But certain patterns do manage to break into the usually muddled picture. Countless singers have zoomed to fame on the impetus of a single sensational record hit and then slowly faded away (J. Ray, Rose Murphy, Tony Bennett). But every once in a while a singer comes along who manages to nuzzle up to the public’s bosom and stay there. Among the males these hallowed ranks include Crosby, Como and Sinatra. Among the females, Dinah Shore and Jo Stafford. Now this celestial group will have to make room for another addition—Rosemary Clooney.

Miss Clooney’s credentials are in good order. That old approbation “She can sing anything” fits her well. She can’t read music but you’d never guess it to hear her sing. Her voice is just loaded with jazzy intonations, trick phrasing and the highly salable commodity known as sex. In addition, Miss Clooney is possessed of that extra something that separates the great singers from the almosts. Her secret weapon—earthiness.

Check out Rosemary’s two biggest hits, “Come on-a My House” and “Botcha-Me.” On both of them, it’s obvious that the song isn’t the thing. Both of these numbers are so slight as to be almost unnoticeable. But what Rosemary does to them. With her tongue firmly stowed away in her cheek, she digs into them as though they were newly discovered works of Schubert. She slides, she purrs, she punctuates—all around a note, she growls. But most of all she gives out with the deep, earthy, its-only-you-and-me quality, that has half the male population seriously contemplating going over to Rosemary’s house.

But Rosemary can and does sing better things. Her recording of “Tenderly” is treasured by jazz collectors and it made a big dent with the general public besides. On this record, the best Rosemary has made, the final Clooney style emerged. It’s a style reminiscent of some of our great jazz singers like Billie Holiday, but over it all is spread a smooth gentleness and understanding that stamped Rosemary as one of the greats. Recently Rosemary recorded an album with Harry James. One of the records in the album, “You’ll Never Know” proved to be so popular that Columbia Records were forced to issue it as a single record. Again it shows the polished Clooney making great music with a great song.

A few years back Rosemary had a TV show of her own, but it was before she had caught on with the public and the show expired. She also sang on “Songs For Sale,” a program that died because it relied too much on the theory that anybody can write a popular song. Now Rosemary appears frequently on such TV shows as Perry Como’s and Martin & Lewis’s, where she yocks it up in such a manner as to indicate that she has a great deal of talent besides her singing.

The Clooney career is a typical show business story. From the time she first heard music she’s wanted to be a singer. She was born in Maysville, Kentucky, where her father was a big shot in local politics. With her sister Betty, she formed a singing team along the lines of the Boswell Sisters and the girls’ singing aided their dad in winning the job as mayor of Maysville. When Rosemary was thirteen, the family moved to Cincinnati. The girls entered an amateur contest, won it, and were signed to a singing job with radio station WLW in Cincinnati. They were a sensation in Cincinnati and when bandleader Tony Pastor heard Rosemary, he offered her a job with his band which she promptly took.

In 1949, Rosemary abandoned the Pastor crew after travelling across the nation on the usual band routes, playing ballrooms, theaters and night clubs. With some slight fame established she started recording for Columbia records.

The first few sides that Rosemary cut for Columbia had only average sales. Her singing was still undergoing changes and she made her dough by singing in theaters and night clubs. Then in 1951, she hit in rapid order with “Come on—a My House” and “Tenderly.” From then on, she was established.

WHEN the Quiz Kids moved their radio knowledge into a TV classroom, some know-it-alls clucked, "They'll never last! After all, what can they do except answer questions?"
That was four years ago. Those professional pessimists have long since reneged on their prophecy. Today, even

FRANKIE: Lad with a lisp, Frankie has been a Quiz Kid since May, 1950, and has appeared 58 times on TV. In third grade at Mount Vernon School, Chicago. Father is a sales engineer. CENSORSHIP IN TV

WHAT'S GOOD

THIS is advice on how to get banned from TV.

Don't think it's hard, because it isn't. Sometimes entertainers went around on camera asking for trouble. Other times, too often, an innocent slip resulted in the well-known routine—a flood of phone calls and letters, an angry inquiry by the network or sponsor, a rapid bouncing off the air.

Take the recent hullabaloo about George S. Kaufman, for example. Kaufman was unceremoniously fired from "This Is Show Business" when he remarked: "Let's make this one show where no one sings 'Silent Night'." Unfortunately for Kaufman's security, he uttered that in the Christmas season, a time of the year when most people are extremely sensitive about such things.

Several hundred letters to the sponsor later, Kaufman was fired. But other hundreds of letters protested his dismissal, and the network reinstated him, without a sponsor however.

Moral—Don't poke fun at anything religious, even in jest.

"Life With Luigi," the rollicking portrayal of an Italian immigrant by J. Carrol Naish, drew fire from Italian-American groups. They claimed that "Luigi" poked fun at all Americans of Italian descent. So even though the Naish vehicle was sailing along with an impressive 40-point-plus rating, the sponsor pulled in his horns and canceled the program.

Moral—When portraying any nationality, keep in mind it's the finest and bravest ever.

No less eminent a person than playwright Robert E. Sherwood fell afoul of the unwritten taboos not too long ago. His saucy drama "Reunion In Vienna" was presented on the late Celanese Theatre series, and immediately drew a storm of reaction from irate parents and religious groups. In the play, two adults not married to each other spend the night in the same bedroom. This was obviously sophisticated immorality.

At the same time, the protest vote actually ignored the one thing in "Reunion" that might have had an unduly exciting effect on children—and that was a sofa wrestling scene between the love interests that matched anything ever staged in a haymow anytime, any place, anywhere.

How does a girl get downward? Dagmar knows!

Moral—If the story conflicts with convention, change the story.

The case of Dagmar, of course, is already a legend in show business. From the very top of the TV peak, Dagmar tumbled into obscurity in less than a year. There were several reasons for her downfall—she lost the co-star services of comic Jerry Lester, besides getting a canteen-style type of show that only accentuated her lack of talent.

What really started Dagmar downwards, however, was something that the girl could hardly help: her magnificent build. There's an ancient fable that preaches that a person's proudest glory is what will eventually destroy him.

It was the sudden discovery by millions of TV fans that there was only one reason that Dagmar was famous. And that reason wasn't enough when she tried to get by without help of her co-stars on "Broadway Open House."

Moral—If you're glamorous but talentless, surround yourself with talented people.

Right now, Congress has set up a permanent committee to deal with immoral and subversive influences in TV and radio. Where the legislators will stop, no one knows. But many clear-headed critics are raising a stern warning that the forces of censorship had better start putting reasonable limits on their demands.

Otherwise, these critics insist, TV will bury itself in an early cultural grave.

A modern-day Shakespeare would have about as much chance of selling a drama to the networks as a snowball in Hades. The reason—too much blood, thunder, sex and abnormality. Likewise, the old Greek and Roman classics would never find their way out of today's audition waste basket. Yet these works make up great literature.

In a lighter vein, censorship may very well drive all types of humor off television, if its present headlong rush towards complete blanketing isn't checked. If the case of "Luigi" is an indication, there soon may be a complete ban on all dialect jokes, one of the three basic sources of modern humor. This would leave the gagwriters only boy-meets-girl jokes and mother-in-law gags, a pretty grim situation indeed.

Is your Television set outmoded?

(THE NEXT FEW MINUTES WILL TELL YOU)

Here are eight pertinent questions you should ask yourself about your present television set. Get a pencil and answer them now.

YES NO
☐ ☐ Got a small picture? The new Zeniths have big 17, 21 and 27-in. pictures, fine grain pictures with sharp, clean contrasts.

☐ ☐ Is your cabinet an eyesore? Every new Zenith is a fine piece of furniture in its own right. 22 models to choose from, styles for every taste.

☐ ☐ Has your set a flat, tinny tone? Big speakers and precision-engineered FM sound systems make the sound of a new Zenith as matchless as the Zenith picture.

☐ ☐ Has your set an awkward tuning system? You tune a Zenith, both sound and picture, with just one knob. You get perfect reception on every channel, UHF or VHF, pre-tuned for your location.

YES NO
☐ ☐ Do you anticipate UHF troubles? Any Zenith ever built can be readied for UHF in 15 minutes without taking the chassis out of the cabinet, without converters.

☐ ☐ Does interference blur picture and sound? You can lock out interference with the Zenith Fringe Lock. It keeps the picture from wobbling and rolling, too!

☐ ☐ Got fringe area “snow?” When tested in 17 difficult fringe areas the new Zenith million-dollar chassis gave 25% better reception than any leading make tested against it.

☐ ☐ Do you get reflection and glare on the screen? A special development eliminates room reflection and glare at eye level on the new Zenith models.

If you’ve answered “Yes” to 2 or more of the above questions, it’s pretty good proof that your set is out of date—robbing you of a lot of TV enjoyment. And it means that you’d better make a bee-line for the nearest ZENITH TV DEALER.

The Tudor
17-inch screen $199.95*

*Manufacturer’s suggested retail prices are shown and include Federal Excise Tax as well as Parts and Tube Warranty. West Coast and Far South prices slightly higher.

MY VALENTINES: RADIO STYLE
by WM. A. Que

"ROSES ARE RED,
Violets are blue,
Dear Radio Valentine,
I'm Listening to You!"

With this premature verse, may I sing praises and adoration for some of these nice Radio sweethearts:

TO JUNE Marl owe: You're my constant breakfast companion mornings from 8:00-8:25 A.M! Your music, time, temperature and shopping notes really get me off to a good work-a-day start Mondays thru Fridays!

TO MARY Merryfield: When the clock strikes noon, Mary, I think of you! And tune you in weekdays at 12:00 for news and those homey stories about Webster County! (And likewise, your new show, Quality Set to Music, Thursdays at 9:35 P.M.) No wonder the ladies call you the Midwest's most lovable women's commentator!

TO DOROTHY Weitzel: Sweet Dorothy, what a nice girl to be with for Lunch at the Conrad Hilton (WMAQ, weekdays, 12:30 P.M.)! Tony's a lucky-guy to share the mike when you both talk to those Park Row celebrities!

TO ALICE Faye: Although I miss your war-time warbling of love songs, you bring us lots of romantic fun Sundays at 7:00 P.M. with hubby Phil Harris over WMAQ!

TO FRAN Allison: As the only "live" star of Kukla, Fran & Ollie, you're even more terrific on Radio weekdays at 1:45 P.M. Wish I was Ollie!

Monday thru Friday 11:00 p.m.
Presented by Ray-Eddy Inc.

WBKB
Last year, Rosemary went to Hollywood to make a film called "The Stars are Singing." The results—sensational. The film hasn’t been released yet, but Rosemary was quickly cast in another film, "Here Come the Girls" co-starring with Bob Hope. If this isn’t indication of her arrival at the top, then consider that Paramount Pictures are now grooming her to play the leads in all of that studio's top musicals, parts that used to call for Betty Hutton.

Rosemary's singing has not only won over most of the adults in the U. S. She's also captured the heart of one Jose Ferrer, perhaps the number one actor on earth today. Although there is no definite word yet, everything points to a Ferrer-Clooney wedding as soon as Ferrer's present wife's divorce becomes final.

It would be nice to say that Rosemary is one of those standard American success stories, the struggling singer conquering a public after years of starvation. But it just wasn’t that way. Miss Clooney has had to work hard at her singing, but success was inevitable and not long in coming. With many people now calling her the best singer around, picture and TV contracts staring her in the face, this earthy, vibrant lass is one of the great attractions in show business. Yet on May 23, 1953, she’ll be just 25 years old.

TV’s sweetHEARTS and HEARTthrobs

Chicagoans pride themselves on having the biggest hearts in the country: Just as big, they’ll tell you, as the area covered by the Windy City. Well, almost.

When it comes to giving ("from the heart," as the expression goes), Chicagoans are seldom surpassed. Witness the success of the local telethons, charity drives and campaigns. Chicagoans’ pockets are rarely zipped shut.

It’s especially fitting that February, month of valentines, should be declared Heart month. Also that these personalities should be TV Forecast’s candidates for "SweetHEARTS" and "HEARTthrobs" of the 1953 campaign.

With heart diseases as the major menace to human life (odds on death from heart disease are even money and every second death in the U.S. this year will be from heart disease, the analysts say), funds are needed for research. You can bet the sweetHEARTS and HEARTthrobs pictured here, representative of Chicago’s TV population, will be among those contributing generously.

BILL SNARY: Bobbysox hearts throb for Baritone Bill.

LEE PHILLIP: WBKB’s sweet-talkin’ gal announcer.

EARL NIGHTINGALE: This "bird" charms the ladies with his straight talk.

PEGGY TAYLOR: Breakfast Club sweetheart and TV thrush.

MARILYNN LOVELL: The sugar without her "Coffee And—"

HUGH DOWNS: Housewives sigh for handsome Hugh.
SPORTSCAST
by ED PAZDUR

IF Chuck Davey is successful in his bid for the welterweight crown in his scrap with champion Kid Gavilan next Wednesday, he'll become the first college grad to win that title... Davey's rise as a topflight boxer might presage an influx of erudite young scholars into the fight game, duplicating the invasion of college men into pro baseball after World War I... While Davey is undergoing the rigor of training at plush Tam O'Shanter Country Club, his wife is passing the time in Florida. The Daveys report a contender is on the way.

Kid Gavilan is riding a winning streak of 26 fights. His most savage title defense came in a corking fight against 22 year-old Gil Turner in Philadelphia. He managed to polish-off all other contenders with comparative ease but expects the worst against Davey's confusing southpaw style. ... When we asked Turner who he thought would win—Gavilan or Davey—he said: "I don't have a thing against Davey but I hope that Gavilan wins just so I can meet him again to even the score."

With Rainbow Arena in full operation, a lot of new talent is being developed. Rainbow promoter Irv Schoenwald can proudly point to heavyweights Toxie Hall and Billy Noble; middleweight Chester Mieszala and welterweight Allan Moody... Schoenwald is quick to attribute this success to television. "Without it," says Irv, "I'd be out of business overnight."... Charles Hearn, chief spokesman for sponsors (Pontiac) announced the Monday night WENR-TV telecasts would be renewed for another 13 weeks after Feb. 23, the expiration date. Larry Gross' Agency will be retained with Jack Page directing.

Cuffnotes: In New York, Joe DiMaggio refused to renew his pre-game and post game TV show at Yankee Stadium for the coming season. Joe E. Brown will take his place... Since Frank Lane took the helm of the White Sox four years ago, Pale Hose salaries have leaped from $150,000 to $500,000... Lee O'Farrell, the portly Thillens publicist, reports over nine clients have been clamoring for rights to televise the Major Little League this summer.

The Chicago Black Hawks are throwing a real damper on TV pessimists. If TV hurts the gate, Bill Tobin's skaters will never know it. Despite Sunday night telecasts, the Hawks are pulling great crowds. Which accounts for the broad grin on sportscaster Joe Wilson... Al Rollins and Bill Mosienko are running neck-and-neck in Forecast's poll to determine Chicago's favorite player. Tune in Sunday night at 10:00 p.m. over WBKB and vote for your favorite. The winner will receive a beautiful 21", Sentinel, console TV set.

TV FORECAST 41
I have one big advantage over most sports fans in the fact that I can watch a fight on my monitor (TV set) at ringside and see it in person at the same time. I would advise everyone, who can, to come out to the Chicago Stadium Feb. 11. It will be a thrilling, dramatic spectacle—I'd suggest you attend if possible.

From the time Gerardo Gonzales entered the boxing ring in a government-sponsored tournament, Kid Chocolate had been tutoring him. As an amateur, he met with a fair amount of success and then turned pro in 1943. It wasn't until 1946 that he came to this country and fought under the name of Kid Gavilan. Now he is the welterweight champion of the world.

About the time Gavilan turned professional another youngster was beginning to fight as an undergraduate at Michigan State. His name was Charles Davey, and as a freshman in the school, he was named the outstanding college boxer in the nation. In 1949, after four years at Michigan State; an Olympic boxing berth; his Master's degree; and a tour of overseas duty as a B-24 navigator, Charles Davey turned professional. Now, he meets Kid Gavilan for the welterweight championship of the world on Feb. 11 in the Chicago Stadium.

From the time Gavilan won the world's title in May of 1951 he has been getting better. Gavilan wasn't a knockout puncher before winning the crown, but wore down his opponent with his lightning fast punches, his amazingly...
dexterous footwork, and his crowd-pleasing bolo punches.

Gavilan is colorful. His style is flawless; his stamina and ability to take punishment awesome. His fiery flurries when he is hurt are damaging. There is no question that Gavilan is an exceptionally fine fighter.

Davey, the popular carrot-top, could become the first college graduate in history to win a welterweight title berth should he defeat Gavilan. His only appearances on TV—in six Pabst Blue Ribbon Bouts in 1952—have made him the top attraction on the networks. His southpaw style of leading with the right and jiggling in and out and up and down have caught the fancy of the nation. That is the big difference, outside the southpaw style, between him and Gavilan. It is the difference, too, that might mean the fight.

This fight, being a title event, might not run a pattern. However, you can look for Gavilan’s flurries in the last thirty seconds. In his first title defense, against Billy Graham (also a Blue Ribbon Bout) Graham counter-attacked during these flurries, and many thought he won the fight. I believe Davey will follow Graham’s tactics.

Of course it is hard to predict what will happen in a fight. Davey has knockout power, but Gavilan has never been knocked out. Gavilan has newfound knockout power, but Davey hasn’t been knocked out.

The only serious threat to Davey has been his tendency to cut about the eyes, some of them self-inflicted. If he can escape eye damage, he’ll be in a tremendous position to take the fight. Certainly I’m not going to try and pick a winner. I will, however, make this prediction—the Davey-Gavilan welterweight title contest on February 11, is a fight that I wouldn’t miss for the world.

Editor’s note: ... Russ Hodges wisely shunned the proverbial limb. In effect, he had to in order to report a fight objectively. However, we’ll climb onto it by bravely predicting that Gavilan will retain his title.

Since winning the crown almost three years ago, Gavilan has improved against the best competition available. In his last title defense he whipped powerful Gil Turner in a savage bout at Philadelphia. Bobby Dykes, Billy Graham and Johnny Bratton, all front line welters, were convincingly smote by the Havana Hawk. Davey’s true potential, on the other hand, has not been accurately tested in Rocky Graziano, Carmen Basilio or Ike Williams.

Davey knows “The Keed” is a smart, tough character. Given the proper leverage, Chuck can deliver a stinging fist. He may try to outwit or dazzle Gavilan with his educated right, but the champion’s tremendous repertoire of punches should win out. A victory for Gavilan in this fight might terminate his welterweight career as “The Keed” is casting covetous eyes at the vacated middleweight title.

Unless Chuck’s eyes bust open before the 15th round, we look for Gavilan to win by a decision.

The Mailman Cometh:
"I just wonder whether I am the only mother that resents the habit most comedians have of unwrapping their edible props and carelessly tossing the paper on the floor?"—Mrs. H. J. Watson, Chicago.

The Columnist Answereth:
You most certainly are not. And even more parents are incensed when food is thrown or expectorated. (Spit is an ugly word). But protests have been heard, and there is less piggishness on the air than there used to be.

"Will you please tell me why models stand the way they do. It looks very uncomfortable. It detracts from the garments they are displaying."—Mabel Schneider, Three Oaks, Mich.

That’s glamour. If you want to find whether it’s uncomfortable, stand pigeon-toed in the center of the room, look at the TV tube, and say “CHEESE” with a big toothy smile. And hold it!

"It’s true that some people have appalling taste. I have a baby sitter who thinks the man with the hair oil (Charles Antell) is ‘terribly cute.’”—

I get mail from people who think Kukla Fran and Ollie are awful, who think Ed Sullivan is the greatest master of ceremonies, who can’t stand Dragnet, who are bored with Omnibus, who think Omnibus is the finest show in television, and people who don’t see anything wrong with exposing kids to 18 murders a week. Your baby sitter’s opinion is one I hadn’t encountered before, however.
I’ve gotten over being startled that ev-everyone doesn’t agree with me. I hope I can always have as much respect for others’ opinions as I’d like others to have for mine.

“If Bob Hope is vulgar, then I guess we’ll just have to get used to the vulgarity of the American people. He has the pulse of the public more than do the raters. Ask the troops who must struggle with the vulgar life. With a little luck Hope should go far.”—H. Jennings, Chicago.

We hope so—the government needs
the money, to quote an old Hope joke.
“I read your column named ‘Some Silly Predictions?’ I have been trying to understand if it was written in dry humor or just in a bad humor. I am not complaining about the column. I just can’t understand why you should write in such a way.”—Dorothy Adams, Aurora.

It’s a living. As a matter of fact, it was the headline writer who called the predictions silly. The column said this is the season when columnists get sillier than usual, meaning they put them-

The humor in which it was written, I just have a good time writing, and think the product defies labelling.
The best word for this sort of thing still is kibitzing.

“Politics and chance play such a large part in the shaping of a television writer’s ambitions that it’s indeed great wonder that there are even enough writers left to do the four dramatic shows you wrote of!”

“Think what a boon it would be to these eager aspirants and to the multitudes who are impaled on the skewer of dry, tasteless TV entertainment if these potentially fresh, potentially great writers were to be given even a ghost’s chance.”—J. T. Moore, Chicago.

I’m thinking.

“I don’t mind this cereal diet so much, but isn’t a golf set just a teensy bit more important than another spaceman pistol?”

Boys and girls, you have to admit there's a mountain of difference between Andrea McLaughlin and Paul Whiteman. Pint-sized Andrea, who is official mascot for Paul Whiteman's Teen Club (6 p.m., Sat., WENR-TV), likes nothing better than to copy "Pops" actions.

The best part of the whole thing is, Andrea will admit, that she very often gets more attention than Mr. Whiteman. Maybe it's because she looks so cute in her costume. Can you imagine "Pops" in an outfit like that?

DEAR BOSS:

I was watching "Two For The Money" and Hoosier humorist Herb Shriner the other night. Boy, is he funny? In fact, he deserves to be the star of his own show.

That's what I mean, Boss. I thought he WAS the star of his own show. That is, until Dennis James came out to do the ciggie commercial. After that, I didn't know who the star was supposed to be. Because there was Dennis big as life, actually taking a bow to the audience after he finished the commercial spiel.

I think someone ought to break the news gently to Dennis that "Two For The Money" isn't built around his sales pitch. And unless he'd rather be called Jesse than Dennis, he'd better stop trying to steal the show.

Say Boss, I finally found out where all the intellectuals are hiding out in television. It's a cozy little session called "What's The Great Idea?" And believe me, they've got nothing but the greatest ideas on this one. There's moderator Maurice Donahue, he's very glib and searching. There's Sydney J. Harris the columnist, he's real dry and caustic. Then there's Mrs. Walter Paepcke, she's very rich and wealthy.

Well, I tell you, it's a profound hassle. Great thoughts just dripping all over the place.

The only trouble is, with everyone being so doggoned profound, it was kind of troublesome following the train of thought. Myself, I don't mind being exposed to culture, but I sure hate to get stripped naked in the process.

We think Arthur Godfrey's manners were very bad on his last Wednesday evening show. Think that Chet the cameraman deserves an apology from Arthur. If Arthur wanted to be nasty to him, he could have done it after the show and not on his program.

Whoever wrote the Desi Arnaz article in the January 24 issue should supply the common readers with dictionaries. Three cheers for down to earth Shirley Elman.

My hat's off to Chub McCarthy. He said what so many of us think. "There just ain't no substitute for a good program, no matter where it is made."

Ed. Note: Chub needs all the friends he can get.

I'm fed up with all this silly gook about Marlowe & Parker. Don't people know that they are playing a part and doing a good job at it? If it is a case of love, you could say the same of every love scene played on the stage or in movies or anywhere.

There must be a showdown as to who controls TV. I say it will eventually be the majority of the viewers. The advertisers must treat the artists and technicians who produce the shows fairly. When a popular performer like Abe Burrows disappears the fans want to know why. If he got drunk or conducted himself improperly the public has nothing to say about it. But if some stuffed shirt on the staff of an advertising company under the influence of a religious fanatic starts pushing performers around, it's another matter. If there are repetitions of the treatment given Burrows, Kaufman and Naish, something will happen to those arrogant pinheads. They are just as bad in their intentions as the Russian dictators. Personally I prefer no television to such domination by advertising racketeers.
